Pretty, almost delicate fruit character, but in no way lacking in concentration. Crunchy green apples and tangerines, tinged with spicy oak and a slightly smoky reductive element. Lovely texture. Very long, bright finish.

Notably pale. Modest nose. Strong lime notes and a bit more emphatic on the palate than both the nose and other vintages. Interesting... it's blooming in the glass. Long again. More layers than some. I underrated it on the nose. But it's not quite as concentrated as the 2017.

Pale, green-tinged yellow. Fresh honeydew, Meyer lemon, pear and toasted brioche on the highly perfumed, mineral-accented nose. Bright and penetrating in the mouth, offering densely packed yet nery citrus and orchard fruit flavors braced by a spine of juicy acidity. Shows really impressive energy and minerally bite on the clinging finish, which features a sexy floral quality and a hint of oyster shell

INTERNATIONAL WINE
CHALLENGE 2020

Bright lemon yellow with a subtle, elegant and restrained aroma of lemon sherbet and fruity mineral tones on the nose. Pristine and angular, yet delicate on the palate with well-balanced oak. Long textural finish with beautiful poise, balance and charm.

"Hand-picked, whole-bunch pressed, fermented in French oak barrels with limited stirring. The bouquet and palate send the same message of perfectly captured white stone fruits, then apple and grapefruit. An irresistible wine with spectacular length."

2018 TOLPUDDLE VINEYARD CHARDONNAY REVIEWS & ACCOLADES

JUNE 2019

JAMES SUCKLING

"An exceptional chardonnay with a wealth of very fresh and slightly flinty lemon, grapefruit, white-peach and grilled-hazelnut aromas. The palate has such grace and well-defined, pure lemon and grapefruit, as well as white and yellow peaches. The toasted-hazelnut afterglow is stunning. Hints of praline, too. So elegant, pristine and pure. Exceptional."

"Waxy grapefruit blossom, melon & stonefruit over notes of coriander & creamy vanilla oak over a saline backbone, finishing brittle & briny."
